

Rose Valley, Saskatchewan was founded in 1924 & we are having a once- in-a-lifetime party to celebrate this milestone!

We invite anyone who has ties to Rose Valley and area to come celebrate with us!

About Us

Rose Valley's 100th Birthday Bash Committee is a volunteer group organizing Rose Valley's 100th anniversary celebration. Like Homecoming Committees before us, we want to organize an enjoyable event & leave a legacy of funding behind for the community. As a duly created Town of Rose Valley Council volunteer Committee, our purpose is to pull together our local hard-working volunteers to organize a family friendly, fun filled celebration and hopefully raise some much-needed funds for Rose Valley recreational facilities! It's a big task & we will need a lot of community support! Net profits from this event will be contributed to the Town of Rose Valley as a legacy fund that will be used for the continued operation and maintenance of recreational facilities like the Hall, Rec Complex, Museum, Library and parks in the Town. Please join us as we celebrate & help create a legacy for our hometown!

Accommodations

Our best suggestion for accommodation is that you run an internet search for Airbnb's in the Rose Valley, Archerwill, Kelvington and Wadena area. This may turn up options you may find suitable within driving range. Alternatively run an internet search for one of the hotels or motels in neighbouring communities such as Kelvington or Tisdale. These communities have functioning hotels/motels. Unfortunately, the Rose Valley Hotel is no longer renting out rooms.

Rose Valley Campground

The Rose Valley Campground has only 4 sites which are rented on a first come first serve basis. Rental details are available on the Town of Rose Valley website www.townofrosevalley.com 100th Birthday tab

There will be RV parking on Town owned vacant lands – we will be posting a map in June. These spots will be first come first serve, with no services and unsupervised parking.

Join us on July 5th & 6th!

Rose Valley

We look forward to celebrating with you!
